v.

23-1081

Mason Rothschild,

Defendant-Appellant.

Appellant moves for a stay of the district court's judgment pending appeal, to supplement the record, and to seal certain documents. Upon due consideration, it is hereby ORDERED that the stay motion is DENIED. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 62(b); In re Nassau Cty. Strip Search Cases, 783 F.3d 414, 417 (2d Cir. 2015). It is further ORDERED that the motions to supplement the record and to seal documents are GRANTED.*

* We grant the motion to seal primarily because the confidential parts of those documents are already covered by the district court's protective order, the motion to seal is unopposed, and no prejudice to any party or the public is currently apparent. However, the present decision should not be considered controlling on the sealing issue in future district court or appellate proceedings.
